

Photography

January 2018

For more information, contact:

James W. Swart, Tennessee 4-H Youth Development

Jennifer Richards, Tennessee 4-H Youth Development

Technical

- Create an educational product that explains the differences between a point-and-shoot and a DSLR camera.
- Create an educational product that explains the purpose of various pieces of photography and videography equipment.
- Create an educational product that explains different settings on a digital camera.
- Experiment with different methods of mounting and framing photographs.
- Experiment with different f-stop settings, lighting and filters.

Image Composition

- Create an educational piece that shows examples of image composition concepts.
- Evaluate at least three photographs that use the rule of thirds.
- Evaluate at least three photographs that use the rule of odds.
- Create a photo collage that shows the use of different focal points.
- Create a photo collage that shows various lighting techniques.
- Evaluate at least five images for their composition.

Subject and Scenery

- Create a display that shows the various types of photography with descriptors for each.
- Create an educational piece that younger 4-H members can use to learn about different types of subjects.
- Create a photo collage that shows the use of leading lines, symmetry and asymmetry.
- Critique photographs of different subjects and sceneries.

Videography

- Create a storyboard for a long (more than five minutes) video production.
- Create a shot list for a long video production.
- Write a script for a long video production.
- Scout locations for shooting of a long video production.
- Record a long video production.
- Incorporate proper video editing techniques in a long video production.
- Publish a long video production.

Image and Video Editing

- Critique someone else's use of an image editing software on a photograph.
- Create an educational product that explains the basic tools of video and image editing.
- Research advanced tools used in image and video editing.
- Use an editing software to edit images you have captured using advanced editing tools.
- Evaluate another person's use of a video editor on a video they recorded and edited.

Careers

- Create a photography or videography portfolio that can be used to apply for jobs.
- Research the skills and training required for at least three different careers in the field of photography and videography.

AG.TENNESSEE.EDU

Real. Life. Solutions.™